CALL FOR THEMATIC DOSSIERS PROPOSALS FOR SOCIOLOGIAS

Sociologias is a four-monthly journal of the Graduate Program in Sociology (PPGS) of the Institute of Philosophy and Human Sciences of the Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil. Its mission is to promote exchanges between social scientists from Brazil and abroad. The journal welcomes contributions from researchers worldwide and publishes in Portuguese and Spanish.

The editorial project of the journal includes two main sections: a thematic dossier comprised of invited articles, and an open section including theoretical and empirical research papers, shorter notes, book reviews, interviews. The publication of manuscripts is conditioned to double-blind peer review.

Sociologias is a journal of pluralistic orientation that seeks to make room for expression of the various trends in the field of social sciences, promoting the debate on topics and approaches that constitute sociology.

Sociologias is an open access journal available at Scielo Brazil, Seer UFRGS and Redalyc networks, and it is currently indexed in the following reference databases:

- Cambridge Scientific Abstracts / Sociological Abstracts
- CLASE - Citas Latinoamericanas en Ciencias Sociales y Humanidades
- LAPTOC - Latin American Periodicals Tables of Contents
- Latindex (Directorio)
- Redalyc - Red de Revistas Científicas de América Latina, el Caribe, España y Portugal
- SocINDEX with Full Text – EBSCO
